

JANUARY 2021

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30
31

Tied Houses

The painted globes carved into building facades in Chicago are more than decoration. They're a symbol of Chicago's hard-drinking history. Before Prohibition, these buildings were "tied houses," or saloons owned or subsidized by breweries to sell only their beer. About 41 tied houses survive today.