

NOVEMBER 2022

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
		1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30

Alfred Caldwell Lily Pool

Behind a gate on a busy Lincoln Park street lies a hidden oasis. The pool was built in 1889 for tropical water lilies. In the 1930s, landscape architect Alfred Caldwell redesigned it in the prairie style.

This tribute to Midwest ecology features native plants and stonework. It serves as a refuge for Chicagoans and wildlife.

125 W. Fullerton Pkwy.
Chicago, IL 60614

photo © Jessica Mlinaric / secretchicagobook.com / #secretchicago